

Sociology Alumni Association of University of Colombo

together with

University of Colombo Sociology Students' Association invites you for a

Session on The Right to Information Act

conducted by

Dr. Ranga Kalansooriya

Dr. Ranga Kalansooriya is the Director General at the Department of Government Information in Sri Lanka. Previously, he served as Advisor for Asia Pacific Affairs at International Media Support, an international media development organization that works to enable local media to reduce conflict, strengthen democracy and facilitate dialogue. He was also Director-General and Co-founder of the Sri Lanka Press Institute. As a journalist, he worked for the several newspapers in Sri Lanka, including the Daily News where he became the Deputy News Editor in the late 1990s. He holds a PhD in Journalism and served as Fellow at the University of Oxford on a case study for Combating Terrorism and Discussing Peace.

Date: Wednesday, 26th of July, 2017

Time: 12.00 noon – 1.00 p.m.

Venue: Auditorium, Department of Sociology, University of Colombo

All are welcome!